

Job Announcement: Math Teacher at Gateway High School
A California Distinguished School
"measuring success one student at a time"

Gateway High School, a small public charter high school in San Francisco, is seeking a math teacher for the 2008-2009 school year. Gateway High School is committed to helping each student, regardless of learning style or ability, learn the skills, habits, and knowledge necessary for success in college and beyond.

Key Characteristics of Gateway High School:

- A small school where all students are known well and supported to achieve at high levels
- A diverse student body that is taught and encouraged to be active partners in their education
- A strong commitment to and respect for diversity and difference
- A supportive adult community characterized by continuous learning, reflection and collaboration
- A faculty who believes that all students learn differently and who vary their approaches to meet individuals' needs;
- An innovative and challenging curriculum that engages students and excites them about learning

Math Teacher Responsibilities:

- Teach 5 sections of math; courses to be determined;
- Work collaboratively with math department members to strengthen math curriculum and instruction at Gateway;
- Act as a faculty advisor to approximately 15 students;

Requirements:

- Current California credential in math (or information indicating your eligibility to receive one).
- Undergraduate degree in math preferred
- Commitment to Gateway's mission is essential, including a desire to work with a diverse student body;
- Desire to be part of building the larger school culture and community.

To apply, please e-mail, send or fax the following information: a cover letter commenting on your understanding of and commitment to Gateway's mission; your resume; 3 letters of recommendation; and proof of a CA teaching credential or information indicating your eligibility to receive one.

Contact information:

Annie Mehalchick, Mathematics Subject Area Head
1430 Scott Street
San Francisco, CA 94115
415•749-2716 (fax); amehalchick@gatewayhigh.org

Gateway's Mission:

Gateway High School is a model, college preparatory charter school committed to academic excellence through personalized, student-centered learning. Gateway combines a rigorous academic program with an approach where the individual talents and strengths of its students are identified and supported. Gateway seeks and supports students who have ambition, who are committed to working hard, and who are eager to share responsibility for their own learning. Working with teachers committed to our mission, Gateway students will acquire the skills, habits, and knowledge necessary for academic and personal success in college and in adult life.

For more information about Gateway High School, please visit our website at www.gatewayhigh.org